

Settlement procedure

Important notice about fraud – unlawful interception of settlement letters

Several letters sent by our customers to AG Insurance have been intercepted and fraudulently amended by scammers – for example, by altering the account number and contact details of the insured.

To reduce the risk of fraud, please take the following additional precautions:

- if you, the employer, are using an alternative to e-mail to send us the settlement forms
- if the affiliate will be sending us the settlement forms directly

Employers who send in their settlement forms by e-mail (servicesEB@aginsurance.be) do not need to follow this procedure.

1. Fill out the attached settlement form and send it back to us together with the additional required documentation.
2. Tell the plan participant to ask his/her financial institution to complete the "Confirmation of Bank Account Holder Details" declaration on the last page of this document. The declaration should be sent back to us directly by the financial institution using the following e-mail address: servicesEB@aginsurance.be.

If e-mailing us the forms is not an option, we recommend that you follow the same procedure and then send all documents to the following address:
